ABOUT THE VETERANS 1ST INITIATIVE

Aliviane, Inc. has a long history of partnering with Veteran serving organizations in El Paso. In 2010 the Department of Veterans Affairs funded Aliviane's Veterans 1st Initiative in El Paso County to assist eligible Veterans and their families with locating permanent affordable housing and comprehensive case management to provide participants access to social services that assist in addressing issues and needs that may have led to hardships of experiencing or almost becoming homeless.

ABOUT SSVF

Aliviane, Inc.'s Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF) is funded by the Department of Veteran Affairs. Along with assistance in locating permanent housing and comprehensive case management, the program also helps Veterans find employment, access to VA services such as medical, disability, and the Compensated Work Therapy program. Services also connect Veterans and their families to various public benefits and community-based organizations that provide educational, child care, food pantry, and general and legal assistance services.
